WHAT IS #NEXT TRAVEL TRADE EXCHANGE?

A boutique, international travel industry event that offers unrivalled business and networking opportunities for travel industry professionals focused in the leisure, business and meetings and incentives travel, primarily from the Americas. The event is part of the #NEXT platform of business solutions and events.

The event is designed for top-level executives and innovators who believe in a new forward thinking travel industry.

- 50 strictly pre-qualified hosted buyers and industry partners from the Pacific Alliance and throughout Latin America.
- 50 leading destinations and exhibitors from all over the Americas.
- Up to 40 pre-scheduled business meetings.
- Latest travel industry marketing and technology trends exchange during our informative, sponsored conference program.
- A key hotspot for innovation and business generation.

"This was my first #NEXT Travel Trade Exchange, and my experience here has been very positive. Not only did I get to reconnect with clients who used to sell Canada, I also met prospects, and they were fantastic: they are willing to re-introduce Canada after the upcoming news about the passport changes. It was very positive for us, I do recommend this show and I will recommend this in my overall trip report to attend next year."
